

Airbase HIGH DEFINITION AIRBRUSH MAKE-UP

Professional, silicone based airbrush make-up perfect for a flawless bridal makeover that lasts all day. Designed by Oscar nominated make-up artist, Anni Buchannan.

Whether you're planning for your special day, preparing to be the maid of honour, or you're the mother of the bride - weddings are the place where flawless prevails.

Loved by the stars like Rihanna and Katherine Kelly to professional make-up artists like Julia Carta (X-Factor Make-up Artist), Airbase Make-Up is the perfect choice for bridal make-up. Airbase combines airbrush application with lightweight silicone foundation to produce a flawless finish that will feel beautiful on your skin whilst nourishing it too.

Airbase Make-Up promises:

- A completely flawless, natural finish and weightless application via airbrush technology
- Silicone based make-up provides unrivalled durability meaning no touch-ups required
- A perfect colour match guaranteed – every time
- To nourish skin - packed full of vitamins A and E
- Complete coverage, whilst allowing your skin to breathe
- Suitable for the most sensitive of skin types

Why silicone based make-up?

Silicone is a luxurious ingredient that feels beautiful on your skin, allowing it to breathe while providing unrivalled coverage and longevity. It's water and heat resistant properties ensure that it stands up to the toughest conditions whilst providing a radiant, dewy glow - perfect for brides and their bridal party.

Put simply, it's your wedding day and you deserve the best so treat yourself to a flawless complexion as loved by the stars.

Complete skin coverage and camouflage

Cosmetic skin camouflage is the art of concealing a discolouration, blemish or scar. Airbase can be used to conceal a number of conditions including:

- Acne
- Birthmarks
- Flord Complexions
- Rosacea
- Scars
- Sun Damaged Skin
- Tattoos
